

Personal Challenge

On Sunday 6th of May I did a sermon at Church in front of 150 people and preaching. It was very scary and nerve racking. I felt Glad when it was over because I did something good and achieved something wonderful. I was feeling happy when I wrote the sermon because I felt I was doing something good for my church and here's a copy of what I wrote.

Caring Challenge

Sometimes on Saturdays I go down to church and do some gardening. We do litter picking, weeding and we prune bushes we also mow the lawn and put all the big branches in the compost bin. It's good fun. Sometimes we stay there for three or four hours without realizing and then we get home and look at
